

[Transcript of a letter from Sarah Bridges Wren to her daughter-in-law, Georgia Vickers Wren. Based on the letter's contents, it must have been written in the fall of 1903. Sarah Bridges Wren lived until 25 April 1912. This letter is in the possession of Scott Dickson, Roswell, GA]

To Mrs. Georgia Wren,

Dear Daughter I send you this little history of my life which I have hastily written, it is short and meager but I don't suppose that any one would be interested in much that I could tell, although I have seen a good deal of this world.

With love I remain your mother, Sarah Wren

I was born in Green County Ga the 19th of April 1813.

Went over into Morgan Co where we lived until I was 6 years old, when I was carried to Putnam Co wher I grew to womanhood.

Was converted and joined the Methodist church in July 1828. was married the 4th sept the same year to GW Wren of South Carolina. We settled in Ga where we remained until 1850 when we removed to Louisiana in Jan 51 where Mr Wren died in Augt 29th 1884 and were 5 of our 8 children have died. I was Gloriously sanctified at the Rock Springs camp meeting in Putnam Co, Ga in 1849 which bless the good Lord I still claim and hold on to t.....

... has always been very merciful and good to me and has given me many special answers to prayer.

My blessed Lord has watched over me now for 90 years & 6 months and nere denied me one blessing that was best for me to have. He has given me good friends every where and never permitted any serious harm to befall me. I feel that his abiding care has always been with me and in me to bless and comfort ame and now in my old age and infirmities he has not forsaken me, but gives me the abiding witness of his Holy Spirit to comfort and sustain me. Glory to his name.